

It is important that citizens be kept informed about conditions that can have serious impact upon their lives. Weather and traffic conditions are in that category of information. Allowing satellite radio broadcast this information is an important public service. I strongly urge you to continue to permit satellite radio carriers to provide this valuable service

Thank you,
Ben Atkinson